Gallaudet again scored two in the fifth and one in the following inning, while its opponent tallied two in the sixth. There was some pretty neat fielding around the second bag by the Security boys. Bayslin at short and Hands at fifth inning Bell knocked a high fly, which Bayslin stabbed with his gloved hand alone, and pulled off a back running catch in the following inning for which he was applauded. Maloney and Birck, first basemen, played good ball for their respective teams

A light shower of rain and a fierce gale made its appearance at the ending of the seventh inning, and it looked very much as if the contest would have to be called, but it was carried to the finish.

Le Droits Play Tennis. The annual meeting of the members of Le Droit Tennis Club, held last week at the home of Mr. C. H. Claudy, resulted in the re-election of Mr. A. Y. Leech as president and Mr. H. F. Lerch as secretary and treasurer. The grounds committee, chosen for the ensuing year, is Messrs. William F. Doyle, H. M. Wells and E. M. Willis.

Owing to the very mild winter and the energy of the grounds committee, the Le Droit courts at 13th and T streets northwest have been put in excellent Sacon, Bruner, F. Rose, Doble, Hit by pitcher condition, and the members have been enjoying the outdoor game during the past week.

Messrs. H. H. Riddleberger and Alexander Janasi have been elected members, and, as there are a number of pending applications, there is a growing sentiment in the club that the membership, which has been limited to twenty-one, be considerably increased. Most of the old members will be back in the game, and it is fully anticipated

A Big Southpaw.

Miller, a pitcher with the Cleveland boys at New Orleans, belongs to the Mobile club. In Mobile they claim him to be a wonder. Lajole, McGuire and the other Clevelanders thought so much of Miller when they saw him in action at Mobile that they persuaded him to accompany them to New Orleans for practice. And now Cleveland wants to buy Miller from Mobile, offering a big sum good. You can hold your job, at that of money for him. McGuire declares that clip, anyhow.—Mobile Register. Yes, Miller has the stuff in him to develop but Nicholls has started to pull away into the greatest southpaw pitcher in the from the plate again as badly as he country. Miller is six feet one and a half did last season. Matt Kilroy will have inches tall and weighs 218 pounds.

Longrun each other into the ground and that money. They had a hunch that Longboat would not do, and for that reason they would not bet a dollar on him, but St Yves fooled the smart ones, as well as everybody else, and afforded an upset long to be remembered. The gross receipts amounted to nearly $40,000, it was said, which means that the Derby will be an annual fixture.
